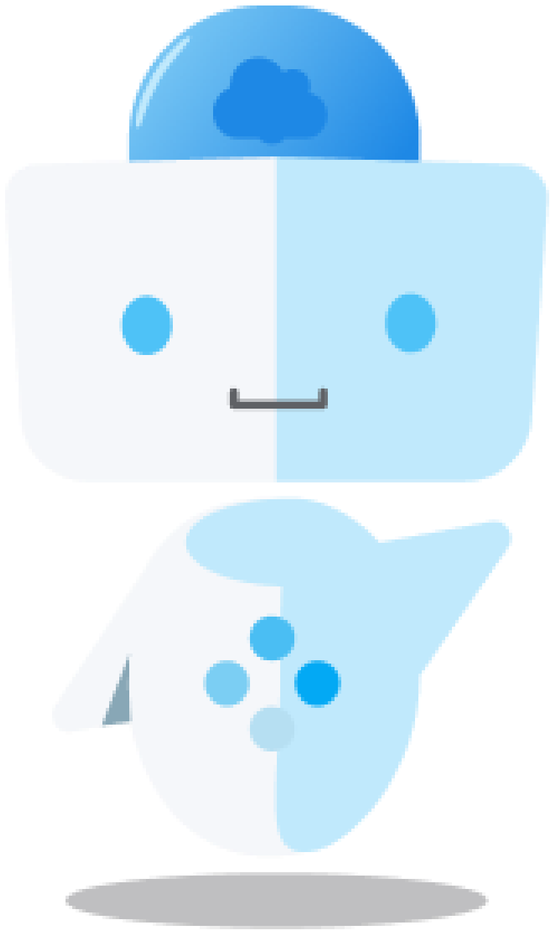
CircleIn

REQUIREMENTS FOR POSTING

Information regarding guidelines and standards on how to properly post on CircleIn.



Requirements for Posting on CircleIn

As per our Community Guidelines, all students must follow all standards for postings on the CircleIn platform. This guide serves as a reference for examples of what good and bad posts are.

Image examples of what good and bad posts look like are provided:

- Good post example
- Bad post example

Accuracy of Content

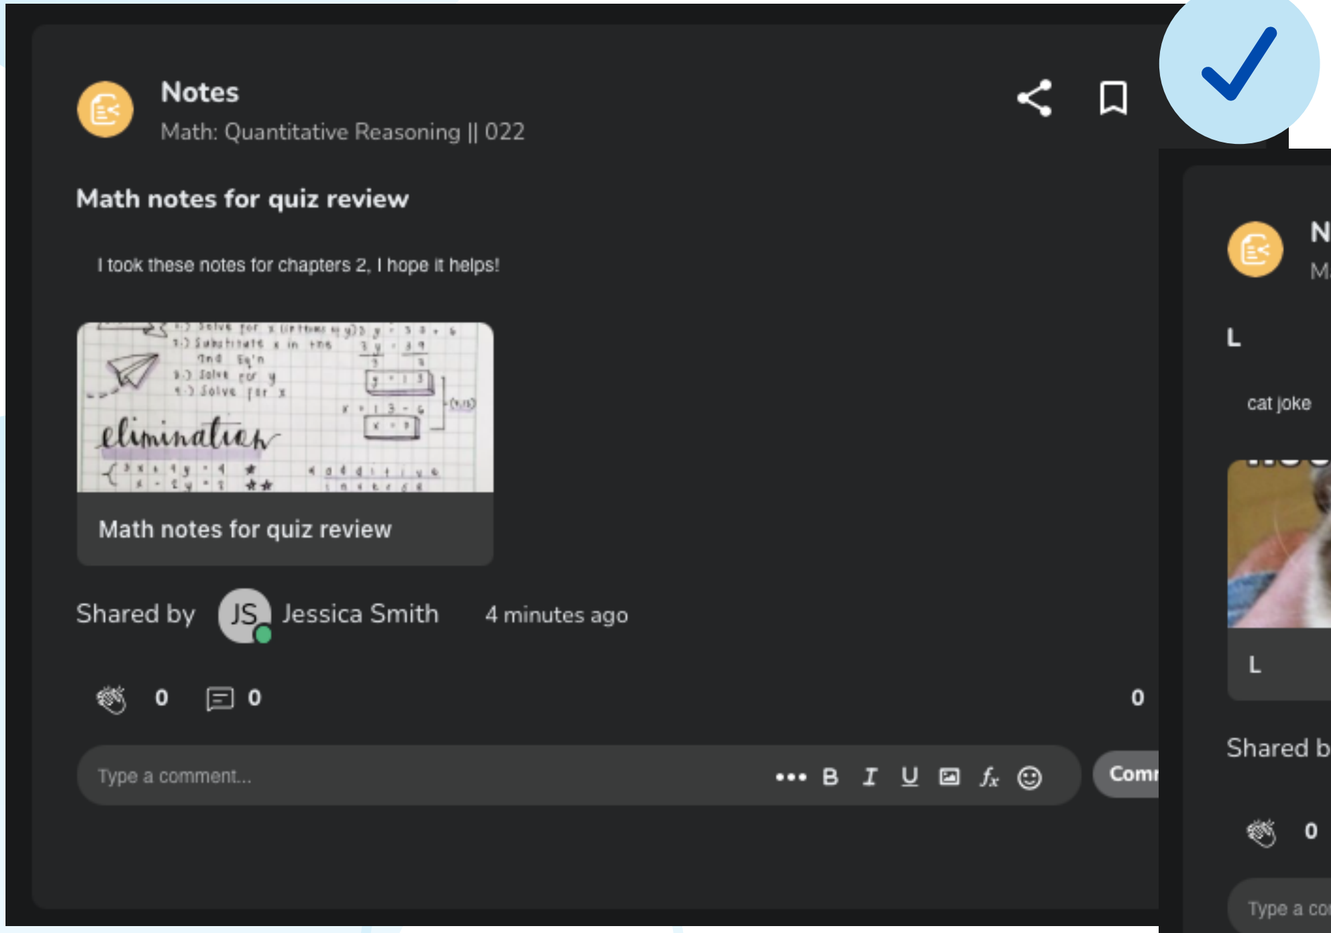
Students are responsible in sharing or creating content that contains information with quality of it being true or correct, even in small details pertaining to student courses.

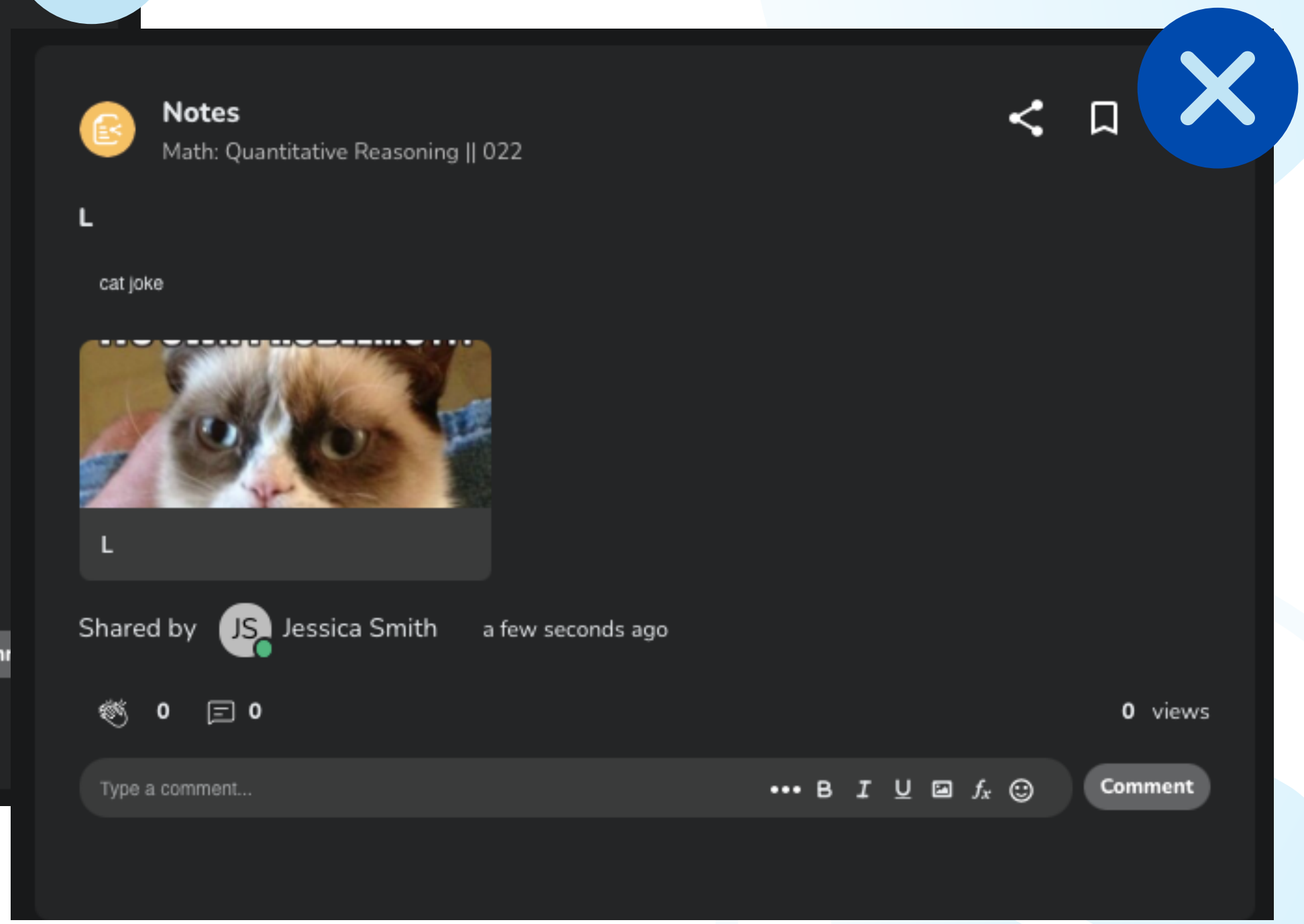
Legitimacy of Content

Students are responsible in sharing or creating content be exactly what it is intended to be with no false or counterfeit information pertaining to student courses.

Share Notes:

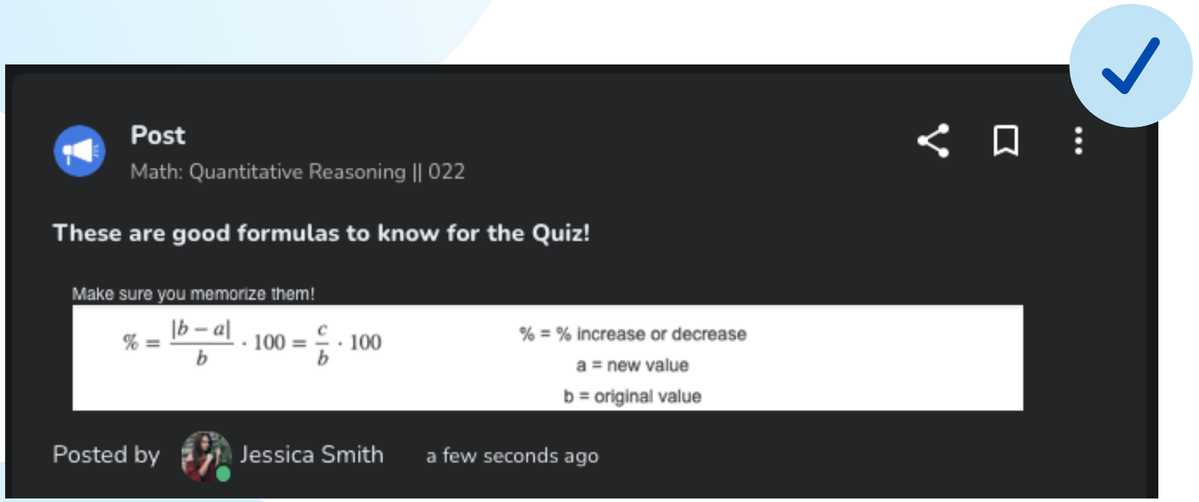
- Notes shared must be images of notes either typed or written by the student sharing and must pertain to course and/or academics.
- Images attached, description and title cannot be irrelevant, repetitive, inappropriate or nonacademic related images.

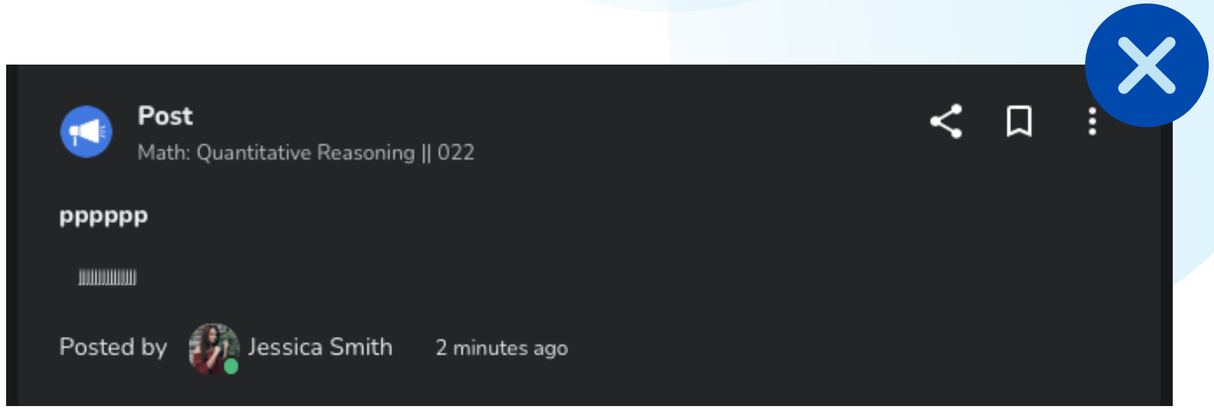


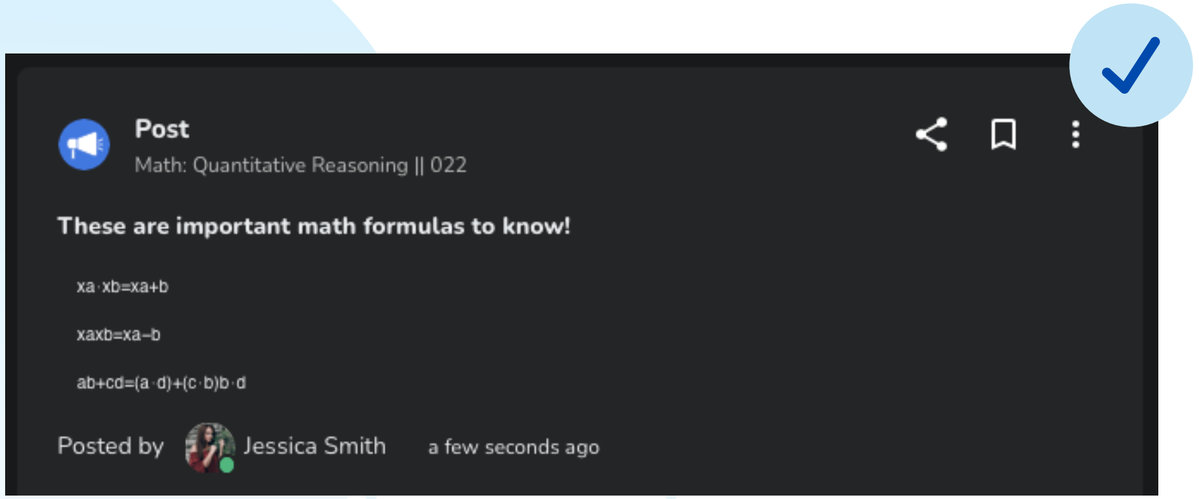


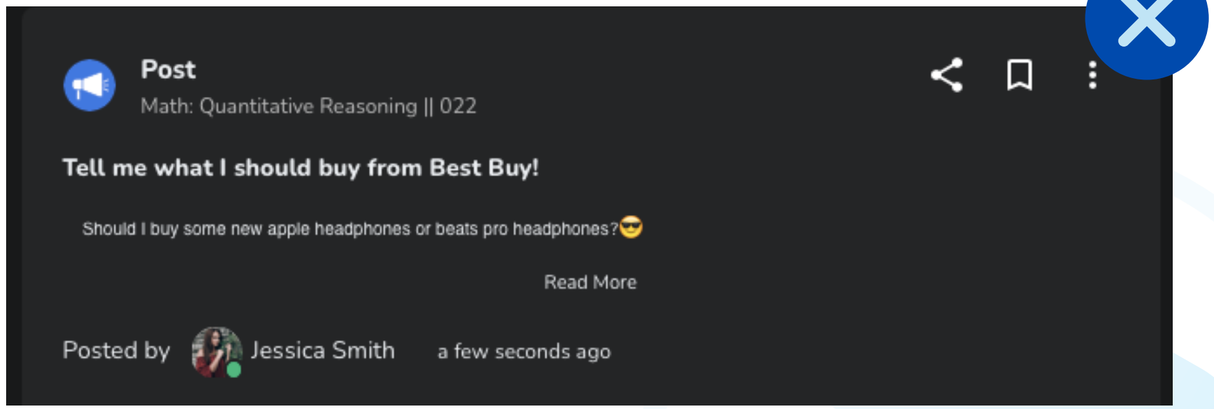
General Post:

- General post must pertain to academics and/or to the course it is being shared in.
- Post cannot contain irrelevant, inappropriate, repetitive or nonacademic related content.



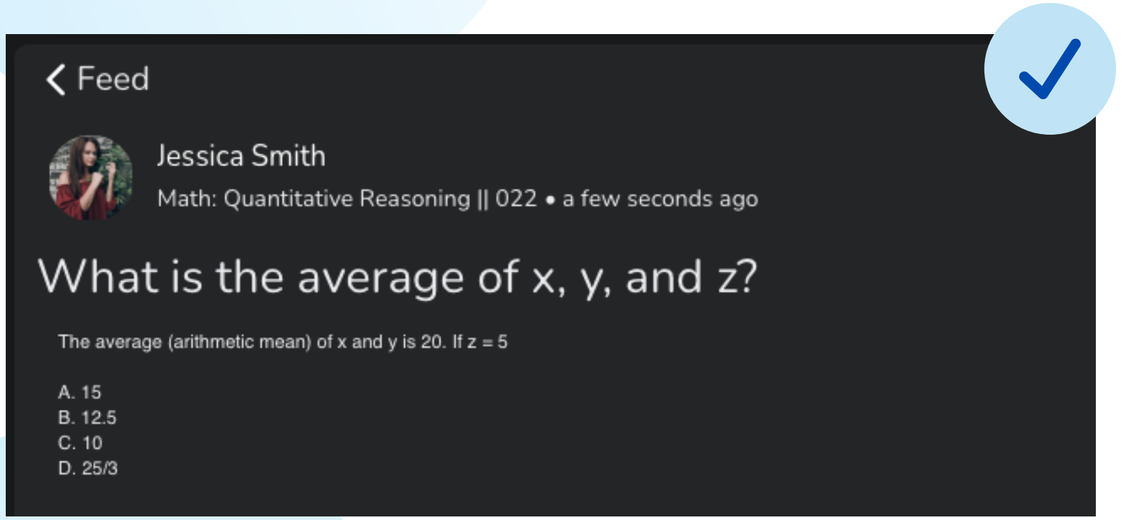


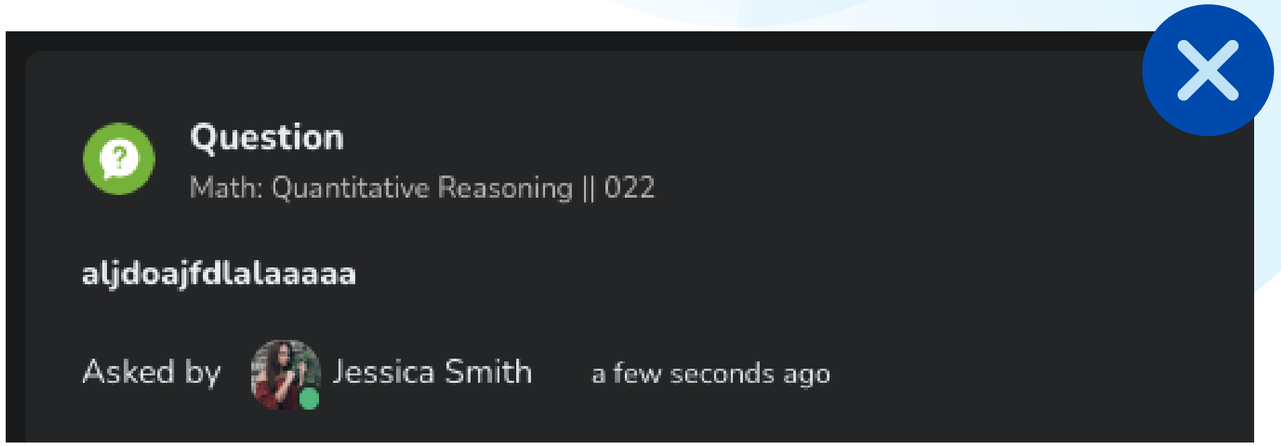


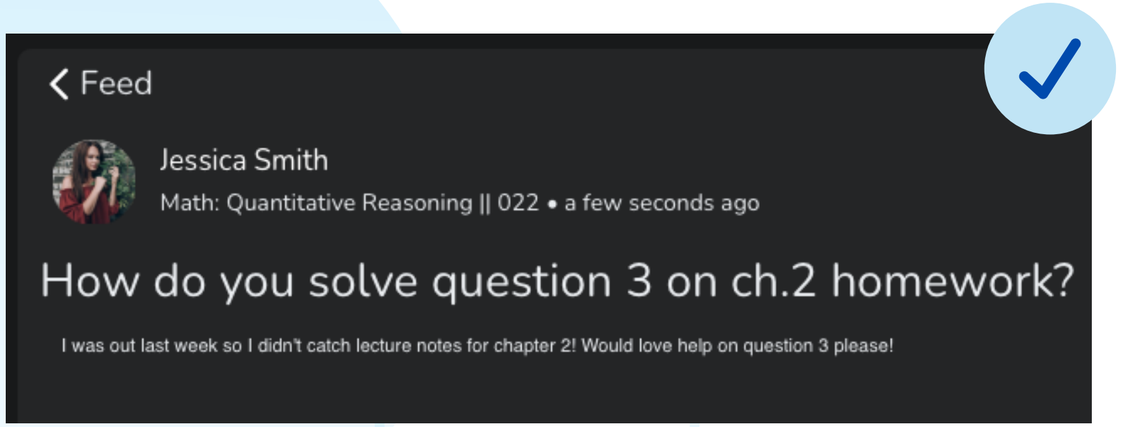


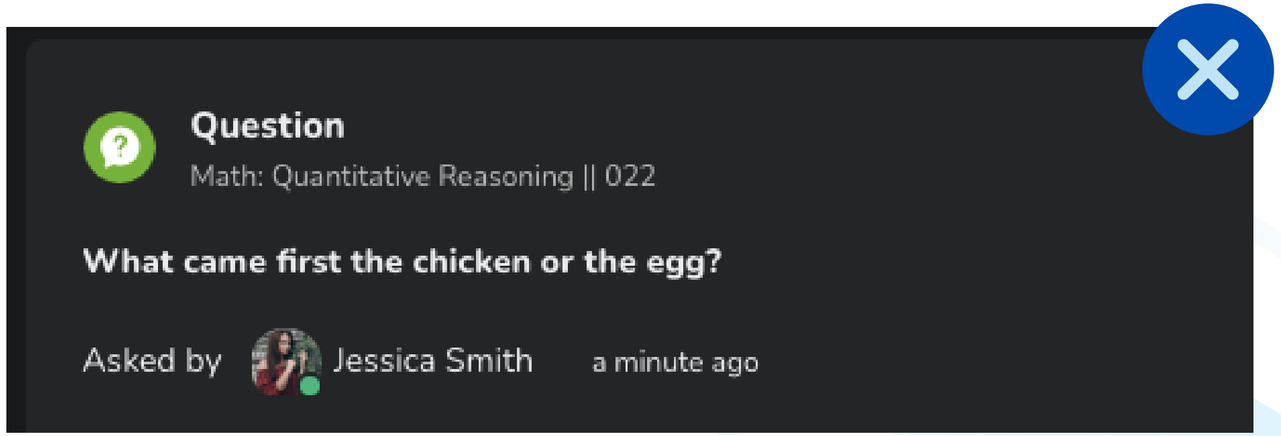
Ask a Question:

- Questions asked must pertain to academics and/or to the course it is being asked in.
- Question being asked, description and title of question cannot be irrelevant, inappropriate, repetitive, personal or nonacademic.



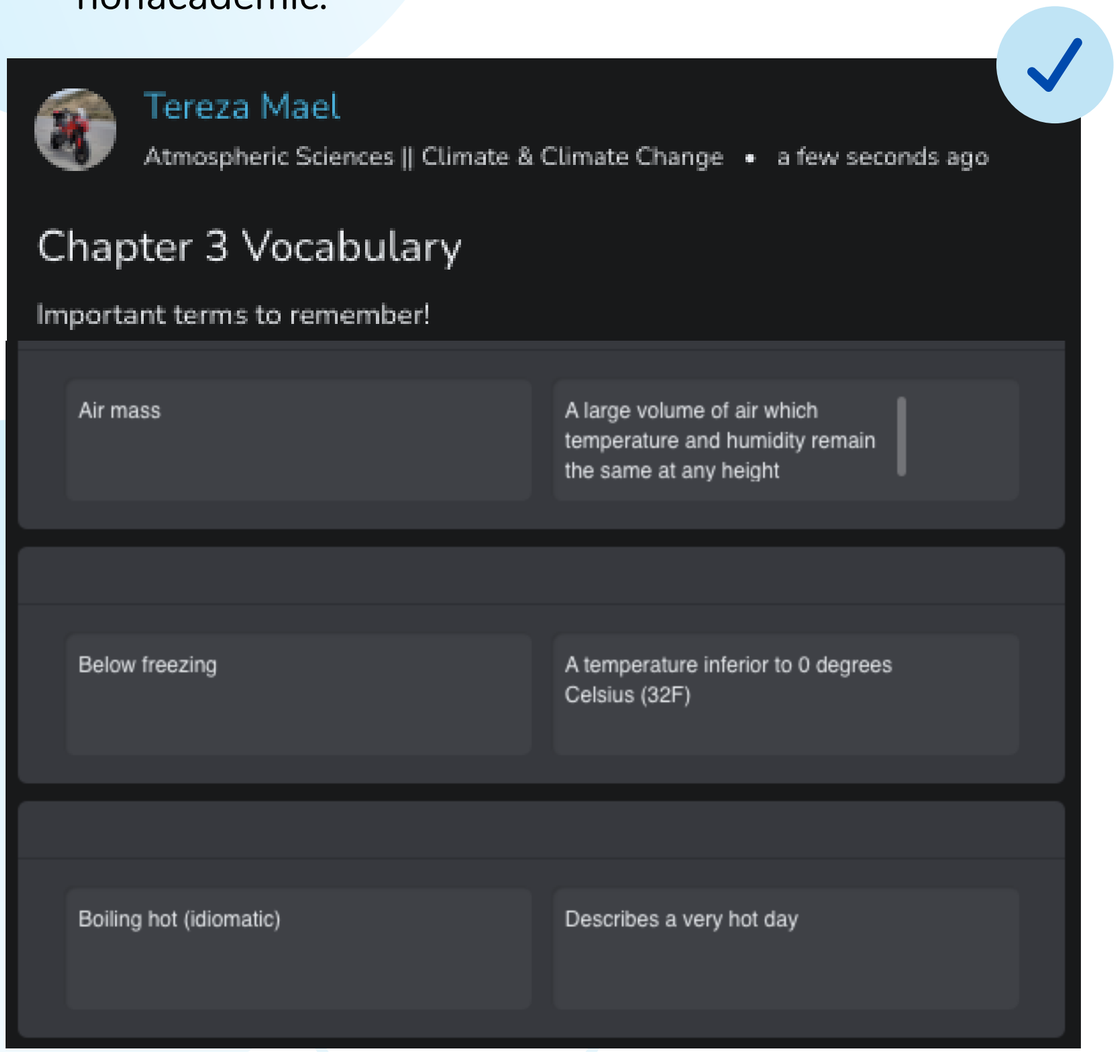


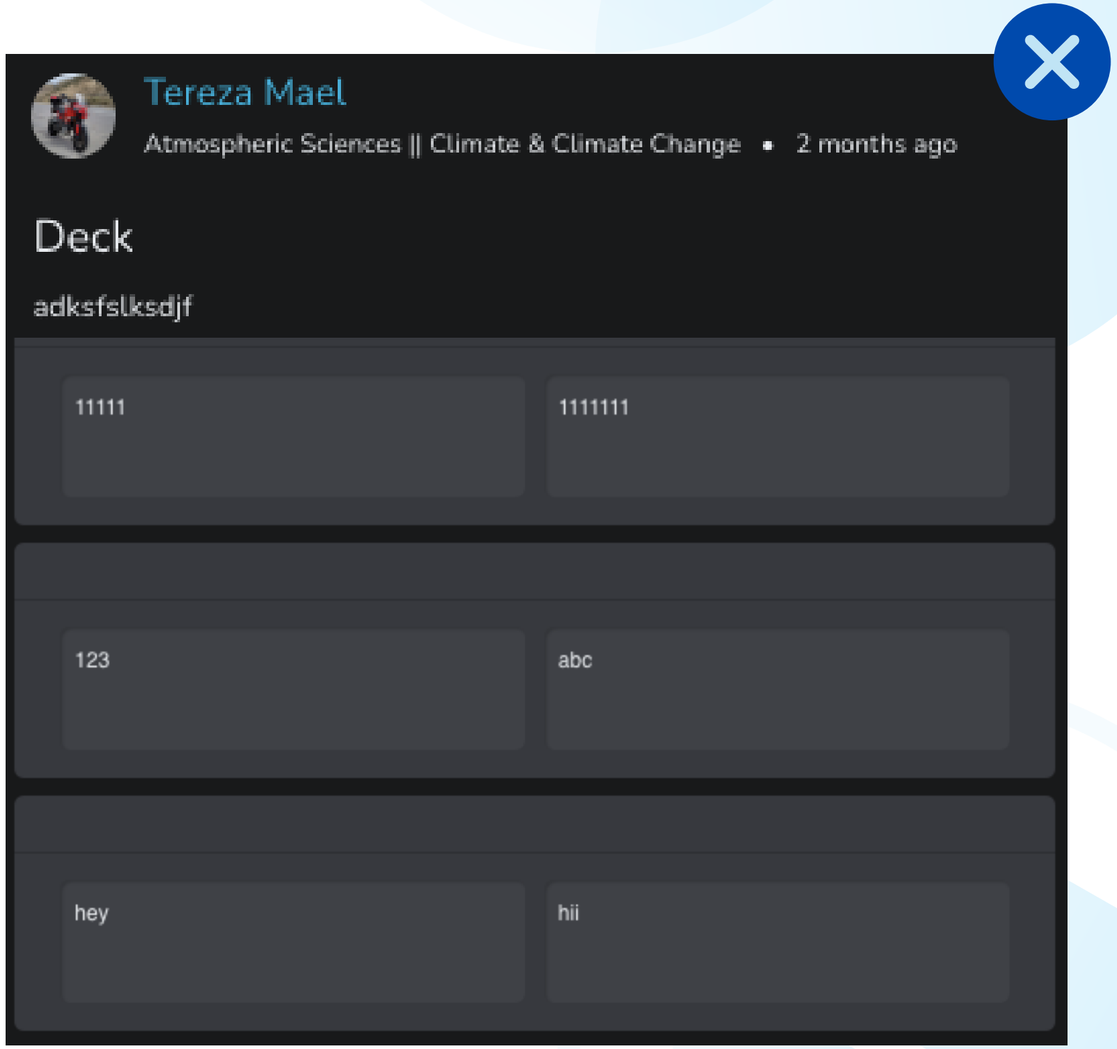




Flashcards:

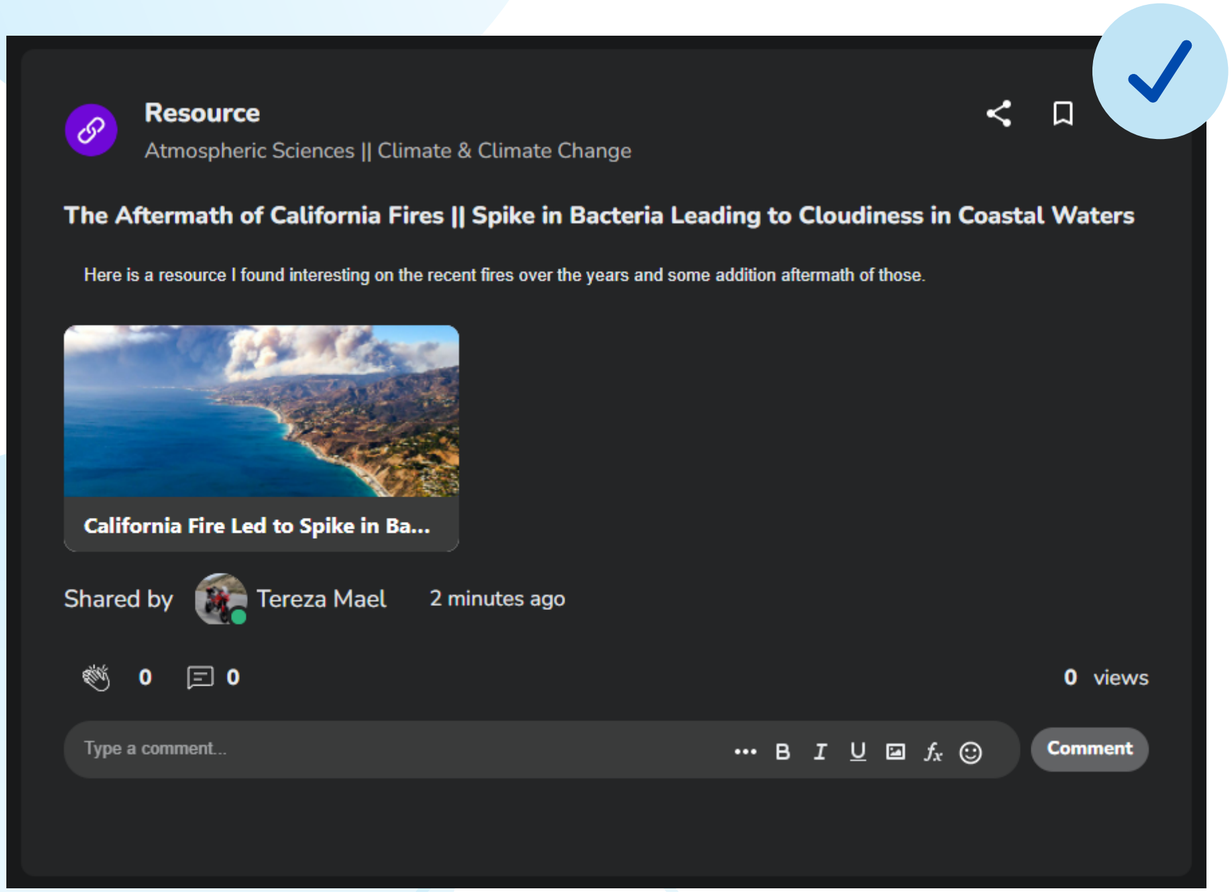
- Created flashcards must pertain to academics and/or to the course it is being shared in.
- Flashcard deck title and description as well as individual card(s) content cannot be irrelevant, repetitive, inappropriate, personal, or nonacademic.
- Images attached to cards should also pertain to academics and cannot be irrelevant, repetitive, inappropriate, personal or nonacademic.

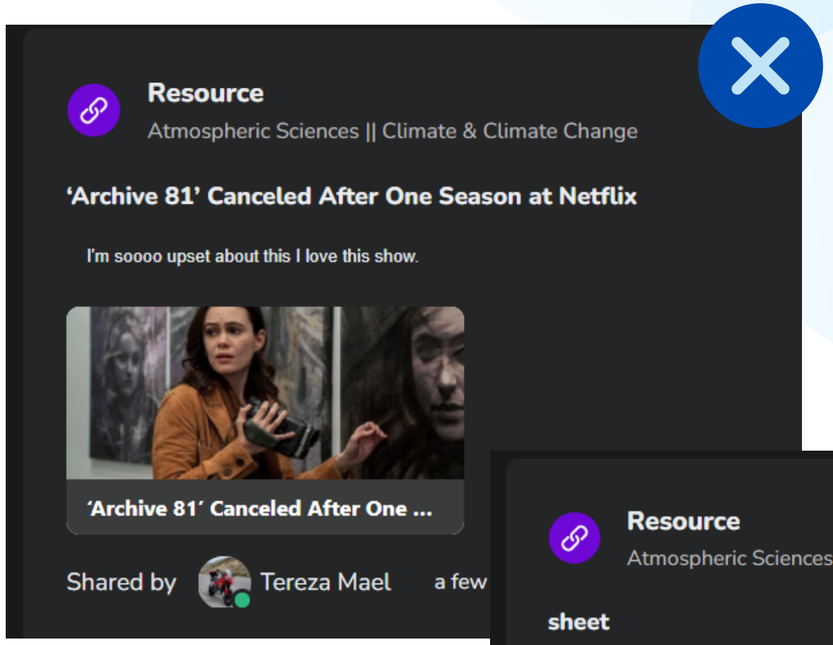


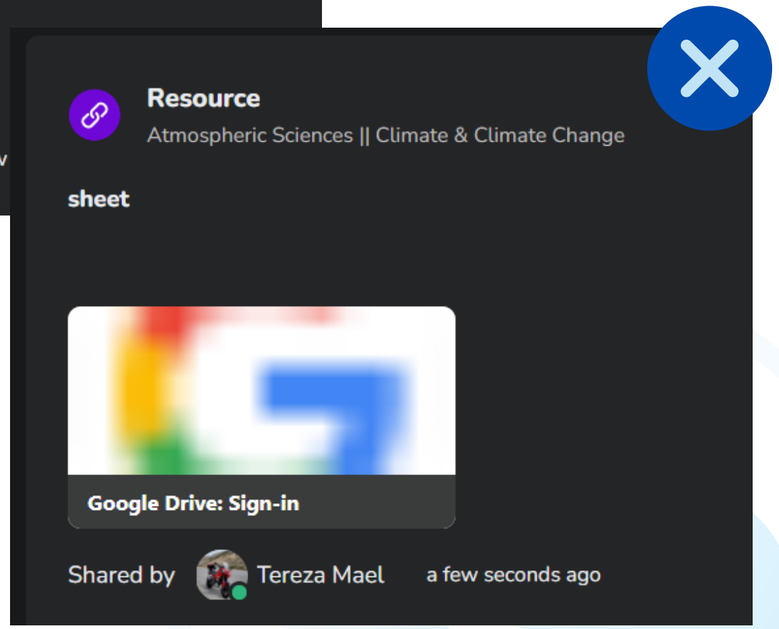


Share a Resource:

- The resource link shared must pertain to academics and/or be relevant to the course it is being shared in.
- Links shared, title and description of resource post cannot be irrelevant, repetitive, inappropriate, personal, or nonacademic.

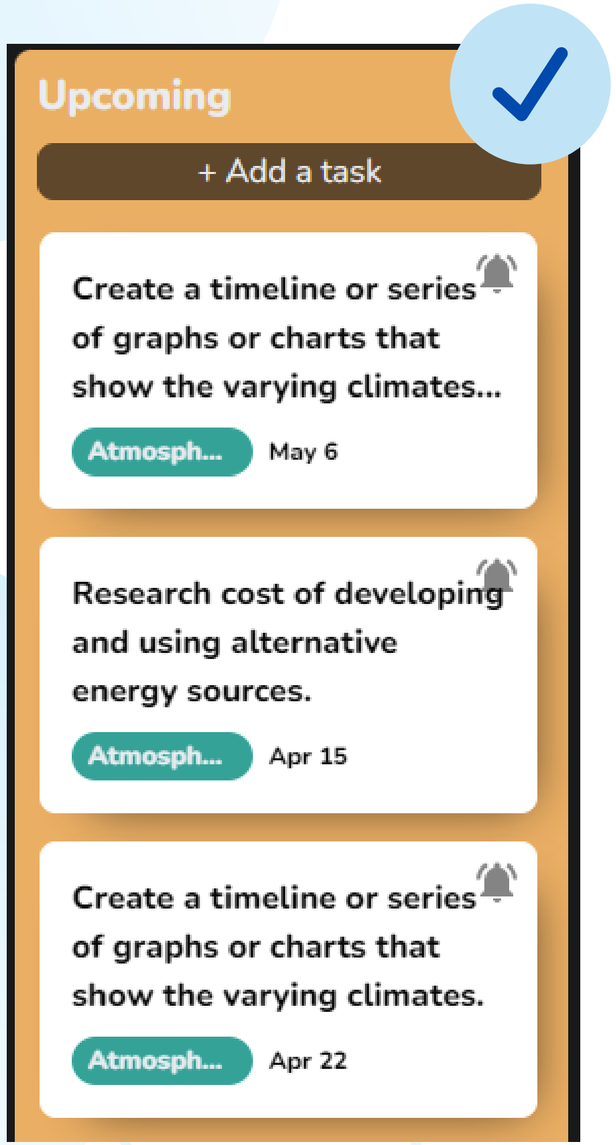


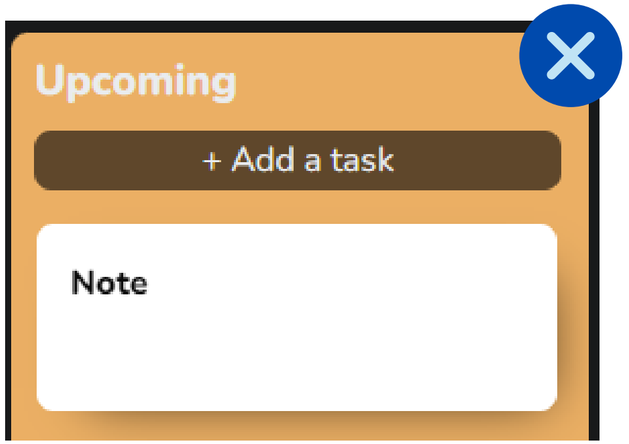


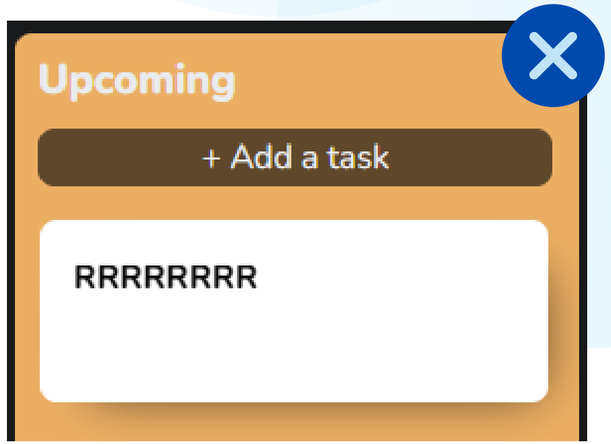


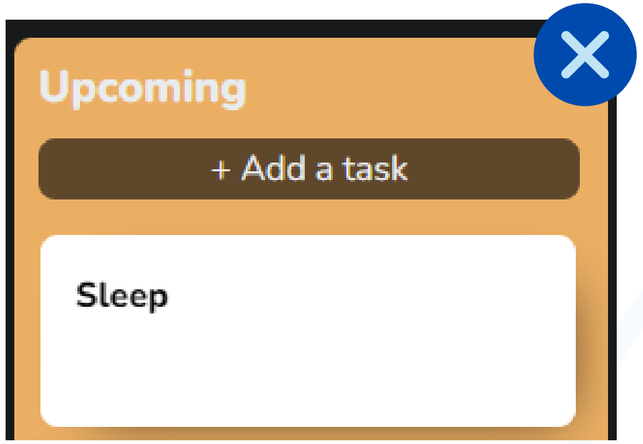
Workflow Tasks

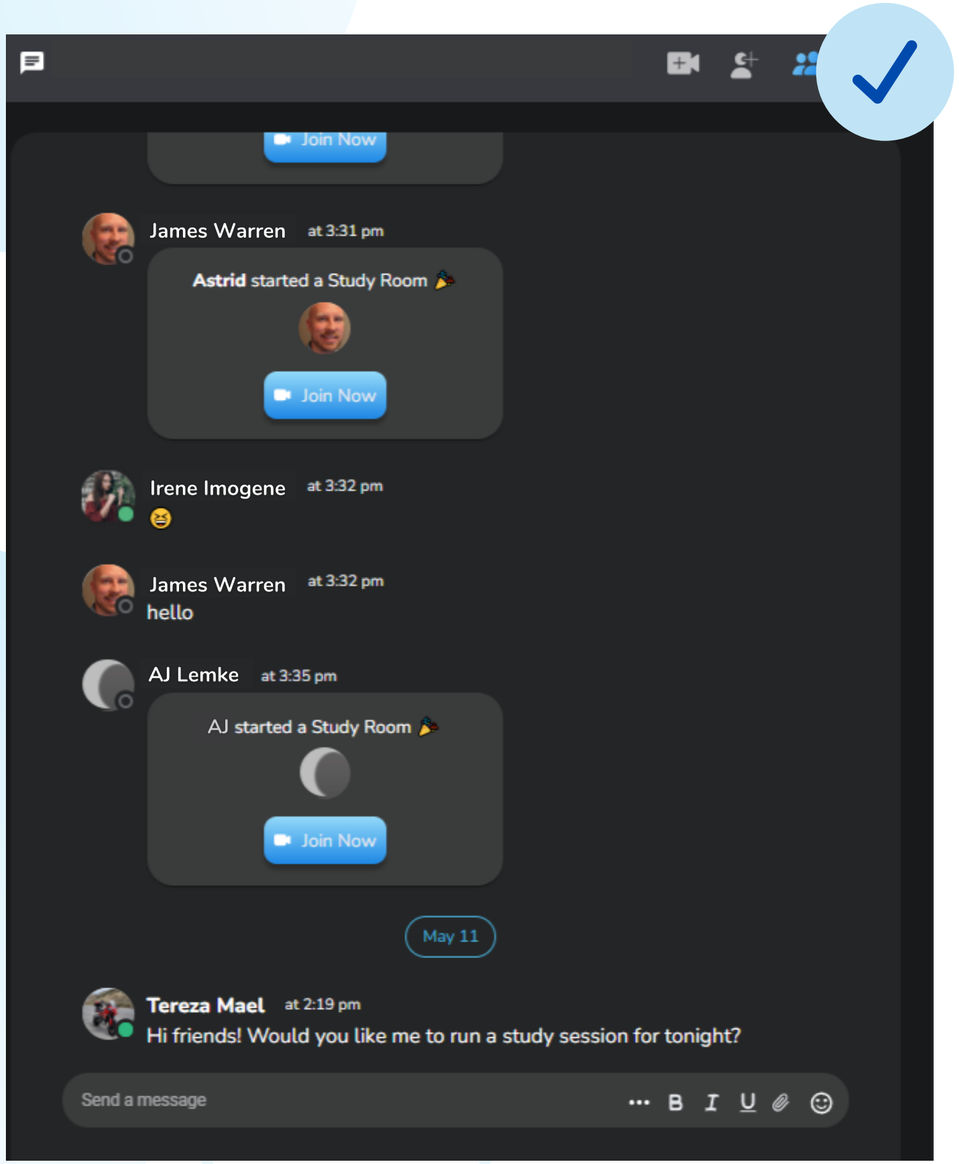
- Tasks created must be appropriate, relevant to academics, non-repetitive, and should be descriptive and clear.

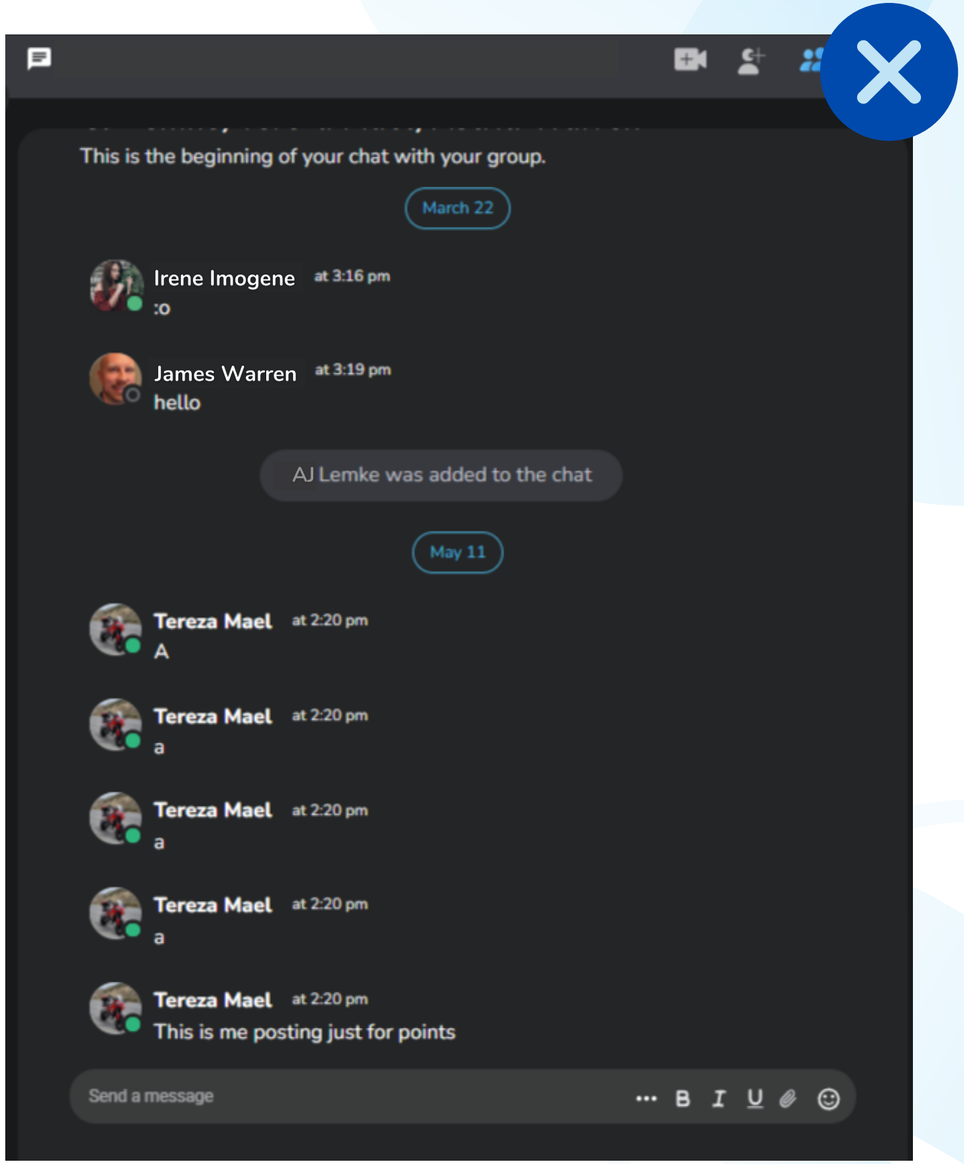








Chat Messages:




- Messages sent within DM Chats or Class Chats must be appropriate, non-repetitive, and/or relevant to academics.